Mountain Garden Club Presents Art in Bloom June 21 in Jackson Village

Members of the Mountain Garden Club are preparing for their 10th annual gift to the Valley, Art in Bloom, a walking tour of eight sites in Jackson where pieces of art are interpreted through member-crafted floral arrangements. Art in Bloom will be held from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday, June 21. All are welcome and the free event is open to all.

Typically, close to 50 members prepare floral arrangements inspired by chosen pieces of art. Each piece of art with the accompanying floral interpretation will be exhibited at one of eight locations throughout Jackson Village. This year's eight sites include Jackson Public Library, RiverWood Inn, Ravenwood Curio Shoppe, Cassidy Gallery, Snowflake Inn, Whitney Community Center, Jackson Historical Society (the former Town Hall), and the Old Jackson Library.

Visitors may begin the tour at any of the eight locations and visit the exhibits in the eight locations in any order. An informational brochure and map will be provided.

A new feature this year will be floral design demonstrations by Carrie Scribner of Dutch Bloemen Winkel, Jackson Village's florist shop, at 11:30 a.m. and 2 p.m. in the Whitney Community Center.

In addition, from 11 a.m. untill 3 p.m., the Mountain Garden Club will offer light refreshments at the Whitney Community Center, with cookies, brownies and more baked by club members.

Membership in the Mountain Garden Club is open to all males and females in the area for a yearly fee of $20. Interesting programs and workshops are offered throughout the year. For more information about the Mountain Garden Club's programs, events, and civic improvement projects, visit the award-winning website at www.mountaingardenclub.org.

Art in Bloom co-chairs near The Wentworth in Jackson, pictured above, are from left: Betsey Harding, Wendy McVey, Suzanne Scolamiero and Rosemary Barsky.